The Board of Management held its most recent meeting on Monday 10th November.

- The Chairperson, The Right Rev. Dr. P. Colton, confirmed the appointment of Dr. Edward Gash as the new Principal and will commence work at the College on Monday 8th December. The Chairperson thanked those Board Members involved in the interview process.
- A formal farewell for Mr. Thompson the former Principal will take place on Wednesday 3rd December. A full school assembly will be held around 11.00am where school presentations will be made. Parents will be offered the opportunity to contribute to a gift to mark the occasion.
- The Board of Management continues to review all the Midleton College School Policies and a timeline is being put in place to ensure that all policies are reviewed periodically.
- The College successfully hosted the All Ireland School Boys Hockey Championships just before half term. The Board wished to note it's thanks to Mr. Seale, Ms. Power, Ms. Linehan and the PTA for the work that they had put in to the event.
- The annual Academic Prize Day will take place on Friday 14th November. Mr. John Loneran, former Governor of Mountjoy will be the guest speaker.
- The College will host its now annual Christmas Fair on Friday 5th December. This popular event will be coordinated by the Fundraising Committee with help from the PTA and others in the school community. Christmas Trees, Wreaths, Take Away Meals and much more will all be available.
- The College Christmas Carol Service will be held on Wednesday 10th December at St. John the Baptist Church at 7.30pm. As usual the PTA will provide refreshments in the Church Hall after the service.
- This year the College musical is Blood Brothers. Two shows will be held on Wednesday 17th and Thursday 18th December in the Assembly Hall.

The Board's next meeting is scheduled for Monday 24th November 014.
